DO YOU WANT TO WORK IN JOURNALISM

Do you want to get involved in big St.Luke's events?

And see your name in print?

Have an audience for your writing?

And gain experience in journalism?

Have FUN!

And it's great for your C.V.!

DO YOU WANT TO WORK IN JOURNALISM

Big (and little) events always need reporting for The Bridge our online newspaper

- Sports
- Arts
- Academia
- New technologies
- Clubs and Curriculum Enhancement Weeks

Opportunities for you ...

DO YOU WANT TO WORK IN JOURNALISM

- Would you like to be a Journalist and attend some College sports matches and report on them? Or take action photographs?

What about reporting on Wimbledon?

- Would you like to be one of our Arts critics and report on events like the College play... "We will rock you?" or the GCSE Art Show? Or visits to the theatre?

- As a Reviewer for St.Luke's you may get free entry into Sporting and Theatre events!

For example:

Could you report on:

- a GCSE History Revision theatre trip to the Barnfield
- a Geography field trip to Lyme Regis
- a Science trip to @Bristol Science Museum
- a Dance show at Plymouth's Theatre Royal
- Exeter's Holocaust Memorial Day
- an Art visit to the Spacex Gallery
- an R.E. trip to Exeter's Synagogue and Mosque
- even a trip to Wimbledon?

Could you report on new technologies introduced to our College?

JOURNALISM

Could you attend:

- a Wildlife Champions Club meeting to report on their activities?
- a Rotary Speaking event to showcase some of our best speakers?
- Talent shows to promote our performers?
- and many more.....

What about reporting on CEW events like Sporting Superstars, Craft, Pottermania and the trips to Spain and France?

DO YOU WANT TO WORK IN JOURNALISM

Not just writers!

Remember:

We need bloggers, photographers and editors too!

If you are interested, what happens next?

DO YOU WANT TO WORK IN JOURNALISM

1. Collect a simple application form from your English teacher, complete and hand back to him/her
2. Attend a short interview with Ms.Christopher
3. Attend one training session after school
4. Your name then goes on a list held by Ms.Skinner and depending on your interests and preferences, you will be asked to report/photograph a specific event, which she will organise for you

Editors?

DO YOU WANT TO WORK IN JOURNALISM

You may not want to write the articles but you may want to be a sub-editor and edit them:

- checking for accuracy-factual and grammar
- making reports more accessible for our younger readers
- shortening articles
- prioritising which to print when
- helping with lay-out
